Dear Customer,

We regret to inform you that HIP Petrohemija's Ethylene plant have encountered unexpected technical issues beyond our control. As a consequence, the supply of all HIP Petrohemija's products will be affected until further notice.

In the coming days we will update you on the precise impact on the supplies to your company. Due to the fact that the issues affecting the plant were caused by unforeseeable events beyond our control, we herewith — on behalf of HIP Petrohemija — invoke Force Majeure on the agreements concluded between your company and HIP Petrohemija.

We are implementing all necessary measures to resolve the situation as soon as possible and avoid or minimize any negative impact on our customers.

We appreciate your understanding while we are rectifying this unexpected situation.

Yours sincerely,

Velimir Unković
Director
